DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Davis (4,227,487).

1. As to claim 4, Davis discloses a treadmill comprising a base frame (27), a platform (26), two rollers (18,24), a continuous belt (22) and a diverting apparatus having a conductive strip (31) with a first end connected to the platform and a second end connected to a ground (11) (via the base frame 27) and a conductive piece (32) located between the platform and the conductive strip wherein the diverting apparatus diverts static electricity away from the platform of the treadmill (see Col. 6, lines 1-8 & Figs. 4 & 5).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Davis.

Art Unit: 3764

2. As to claim 5, Davis discloses an apparatus as described above, but Davis does not disclose cushioning elements located between the platform and the frame.

Examiner takes Official notice that the prior art includes treadmills having cushioning elements located between platforms and frames. At the time of the invention, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art to combine cushioning elements with Davis's treadmill to provide a user with shock absorption to soften the impact of treadmill exercise on the user's joints.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 6 and 7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
